

CRAIN'S

GIFT GUIDE

Supplement to Crain's New York Business

Winter 2006

The Exceptional New Yorker's Holiday Gift Guide

CREATIVE IDEAS
UNDER $50

EXTRAVAGANT
PRESENTS

Favorite Gifts of NYC's Leading Retail Executives

LUXURIES

BIG AND LITTLE

Tiffany Atlas® cuff links, a Gucci watch from Rymax and Karl Lagerfeld's Dom Pérignon

Does a gift have to cost the earth to be considered luxurious? Of course not, although price is one definition of luxury. You'll certainly find many expensive options in the following list. You'll also discover affordable options, chosen because they are known to be the finest in their class.

Elite Golf Getaway

For the client who has made your million-dollar year, consider an Elite Golf Getaway (from $80,400 per person on double occupancy, based on a minimum of four people traveling together; at Elite Travel by Stacy, 561-681-3355 or www.elitetravelbystacy.com). This golfer's dream features 10 rounds of golf on the world's top courses from New Zealand to Hawaii to California, with transportation by private jet (Falcon 900 or Gulfstream IV) to each destination. Accommodations are deluxe suites at Kauri Cliffs Lodge in New Zealand, Manele Bay in Hawaii, Bandon Dunes Resort in North Bend, Oregon, and California's famed Lodge at Pebble Beach. The package includes all meals, plus ten cocktail parties or evening wine tastings; a complete golf outfit from Tehama Golf Apparel and a hand-selected case of top New Zealand, California and Oregon wines delivered to the home.